An Interview with Joanna Dewey

Feminist liberation theologian Joanna Dewey is known for her many contributions to the women’s rights movement. Colleague and friend to so many, collaborating with and supporting them even as she offers penetrating constructive critique, Dewey’s insistent voice for justice will not be stifled or compromised. She names the truth with love and commitment.

Joanna Dewey

An internationally acclaimed expert on the Gospel of Mark renowned for her work on orality in the gospels, Dewey is Harvey H. Guthrie, Jr., Professor Emerita of Biblical Studies at Episcopal Divinity School in Cambridge, Massachusetts.
